

SACP: Papers and Panels
APA Pacific Division, 2022
Vancouver, BC (Westin Bayshore), CANADA, April 13-April 16, 2022

The Society for Asian and Comparative Philosophy invites submissions to be considered for inclusion in panels at the upcoming APA Pacific Division Meeting. Submissions focusing on any area of Asian and/or Comparative philosophy will be considered. Both individual papers and completed panel proposals are encouraged.

REQUIRED (for each paper proposal):

1. Title of Paper
2. Name of Presenter
3. Presenter's Affiliation
4. Presenter's e-mail address
5. Indicate whether you are willing to Chair your panel
6. Approximately 200-word Paper Abstract

REQUIRED (for each panel proposal):

1. Title of Panel
2. Chair of the Panel
3. Title of each Paper
4. Name of each Presenter
5. Affiliation of each Presenter
6. E-mail address of each Presenter
7. Approximately 200-word Paper Abstract for each Paper
8. Name and Affiliation of Panel Chair

Please send each completed proposal as an e-mail attachment to Anand Vaidya, with subject heading: SACP PACIFIC PROPOSAL, address: anand.vaidya@sjsu.edu

Due Date: September 10, 2021. Please note that this is an earlier-than-usual deadline, as the APA is now awarding sessions on a first-come-first-serve basis.

Thank you.