Public transport

From the airport, the best and cheapest way to get to the city centre is the public transport - the bus stop is right outside both terminals. First, take Bus no. 59 (trolleybus) to Ndrař Veleoslavn, where you change to Metro Line A and go to the city center - station Staromstsk is closest to the venue.

Hotel Antik and Residence Dlouh are about 10-mins walk from Staromstsk station through the Old Town. Alternatively, you can switch to Metro Line B at Mstek and go one stop to Nmst republiky, or take a tram to Dlouha station. Please use www.mapy.cz, or <https://www.google.com/maps> to find your best route.

A 90-minute ticket costs 40 CZK (1.6 EUR), a 3-day ticket is 330 CZK (13 EUR), and you can buy it at vending machines at the airport bus stop and metro stations, or using card in trams and buses (orange box). Please note that you have to validate your ticket (insert into a yellow time-stamping machine) upon entering the first means of transport. Prices and timetables are available here www.pid.cz/en.

Also, Uber taxis can be ordered from online terminals at the airport - they are cheaper (30-35 EUR) and more trustworthy than taxis from the stand.

ATMs and cash

The local currency in the Czech Republic is Czech crown (CZK) - 1 EUR = 25 CZK. Please note that Czech shops and restaurants do not accept payment in Euros. Most places accept cards (Visa, Mastercard and most other internationally valid cards), especially in Prague, so there should be no need for cash here (except e.g. public toilets, coffee machines, or small vendors' stalls).

Warning: If you still need cash, please try to avoid using ATMs with the EURONET sign (most ATMs in the Old Town). The company will try to charge you hidden fees for exchanging EUR for CZK. It's safer to use an ATM associated with a bank (Reifeisenbank, Fio Banka, SOB, etc.) that will always show you the exchange rate (1 EUR = 25 CZK).
